

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

ANILESH AHUJA and JEREMY SHOR, Defendants.

18 Cr. 328 (KPF)

ORDER

KATHERINE POLK FAILLA, District Judge:

The Court has reviewed the applications of Defendants Ahuja and Shor for the Court to order the Government to provide additional information concerning the discharge of its disclosure obligations under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), and the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500 (see May 6, 2019 Tarlowe Letter; May 14, 2019 Ruzumna Letter), as well as the Government's response (see May 13, 2019 USAO Letter). In light of the additional detail provided in the Government's letter of May 13, 2019, the Court will not order the Government to provide supplemental disclosures at this time. The Court's ruling is subject to two caveats: (i) the Government must, of course, comply with its continuing disclosure obligations, and (ii) the Court expects that the Government has been appropriately assiduous in obtaining, from the individuals and entity representatives it has interviewed, information and materials sufficient to discharge its discovery and disclosure obligations. Separately, the Court notes that certain of the defense requests are substantially duplicative of applications that the Court has previously resolved; re-presenting them under the rubric of the Government's disclosure obligations does not cause the Court to alter its prior rulings.

SO ORDERED.
